Integration Plan Accepted by Methodists

PITTSBURGH (AP) — Delegates to the worldwide Methodist General Conference voted acceptance today of a voluntary racial integration program for the church.

The more than 900 delegates approved the proposal by an overwhelming majority. It calls for merger of white and Negro church subdivisions on a strictly voluntary basis.

In effect, the church's all-Negro Central Jurisdiction, embracing some 375,000 Negroes, would be eliminated.

Generally, Methodist observers described the action as moderate. No enforcement machinery was established.

The program was drawn up by the church's Commission on Interjurisdictional Relations. Debate opened Thursday and continued into the night.

Under the program, Negro church members would be absorbed into the five white jurisdictions, which are set up along geographical lines.

The program, officially called "a plan of action," would not necessarily be a Negro and white congregations during the next four years. However, the wording of the plan clearly indicates this is the church's ultimate aim.

The 375,000 Negro members live mainly in the area of the Southeast Jurisdiction.

There are 9.6 million white Methodists in this country.

Southern delegates offered opposition to the plan, mainly in the form of delaying action.

Some other opposition came from delegates who felt the program did not go far enough in removing racial barriers in the church.

Passage required a simple majority of the delegates, about one-third of whom are from the South.

Earlier, the delegates voted down a proposal to eliminate the church's six jurisdictions altogether as a means of effecting racial integration.

Racial Tension Eases in Nashville

NASHVILLE, Tenn. (AP) — Racial tension eased today following Thursday's orderly demonstration by a dwindling number of Negro youths and a plea by leading ministers for peace and understanding.

A small number of demonstrators gathered this morning at a Negro church, used as headquarters, despite an announcement that racial leaders planned no demonstrations before late today.

Fines of $10 were levied Thursday against 27 persons arrested earlier in the week after disturbances involving demonstrators.

Meanwhile, spokesmen for Nashville's three major religious faiths pleaded for peace and understanding among men and women of all races.

Princess Has New Daughter

LONDON (AP) — Princess Margaret gave birth today to a girl.

"It's marvelous news," said Lord Snowdon, the baby's father.

"She looks a super baby," Queen Elizabeth's sister and Snowdon also have a son, Viscount Lindley, born in November, 1961.

Snowdon said both mother and child were doing well.

The baby was the fourth royal birth this year. Earlier, Princess Alexandra, the queen's cousin, had a boy on Feb. 29. The queen had a boy March 10, and the Duchess of Kent, commoner wife of Alexandra's brother, had a girl Tuesday night.

Margaret's baby takes seventh place in the line of succession to the throne, displacing the Duke of Gloucester, an uncle of the 33-year-old princess.

The birth was announced in an official bulletin from Kensington Palace, where Margaret and Snowdon live.

NEW YORK (AP)—Police assigned to the fatal stabbing of two white women investigated the possibility today that some militant young Negroes are assaulting whites from a racial motive.

They arrested two youths in the stabbing Wednesday of a white woman proprietress of a Harlem clothing store and said one had admitted slaying a white woman social worker in Harlem on April 11.

The proprietress was Magit Sugar, 45, a Hungarian refugee, and the social worker was Eileen A. Johnston, 28, formerly of Elgin, Ill.

Police said the two youths also would be questioned in the Harlem slayings of two white men—David L. Watts, 29, a Bible reader who was the only white member of a Negro church congregation; and Jules Bulgach, 71, a fruit peddler.

Both were stabbed to death—Watts on March 23 and Bulgach last Oct. 21.

Police earlier had described the slayings as senseless. No robbery was involved.

An unidentified detective was quoted by the New York Times today as saying police were investigating a number of recent Harlem killings and assaults that "seemed to be the work of racists."

The two youths arrested on homicide charges brought to five the number picked up in the clothing store killings. All are Negroes.

The detective said a police informant had definitely identified the first three youths arrested as members of the militant Black Muslim movement.

He said this information combined with previous investigation of possible ties between militant groups and a number of assaults helped lead to the speedy arrests.

Henry X, a spokesman for the New York mosque of the Black Muslims, told an interviewer that his group "does not advocate stuff like that."

State Revenue Up $12 Million

LITTLE ROCK (AP)—Arkansas revenues rose by $12,001,758 during the first 10 months of this fiscal year, Revenue Commissioner J. Orville Cheney said Thursday.

Cheney said total revenues during that period were $144,413,332 in the first 10 months of fiscal 1963.

The total included $62,703,368 in special taxes which went to the highway fund and $93,711,722 in general revenues.

Russia Again Warns Danger of Cuba Flights

MOSCOW (AP) — Premier Khrushchev said today continued U.S. violations of Cuban air space "can have disastrous consequences."

"This will be a disaster, first and foremost, for those who carry through a policy of provocations and aggressions against Cuba," he told a Kremlin reception for guests at Moscow's big May Day rally.

Only the day before, Prime Minister Fidel Castro of Cuba had told correspondents in Havana he would tolerate no more flights and if the Americans want war "they will get war."

The State Department promptly said the reconnaissance flights would continue.

WASHINGTON (AP) — The United States restated today, in the face of warnings from Moscow, its policy of continuing reconnaissance flights over Cuba.

State Department press officer Richard J. Phillips was asked at a news conference for reaction to the warning from Soviet Premier Khrushchev of possible disastrous consequences if this country continues to fly over Cuba.

Phillips said he could repeat what he had said on April 20. At that time he declared the overflights were a substitute for the firsthand or "on-site" inspection of the removal of Soviet nuclear rockets from Cuba in October 1962.

At the Pentagon, Arthur Sylvester, assistant defense secretary, said today aerial surveillance of Cuba "continues exactly as in the past."

His remarks indicated the basic pattern of surveillance — in effect since the late 1962 missile crisis—remains essentially the same despite Fidel Castro's threats to shoot down U.S. reconnaissance planes.

Delight Eggs Get USDA Grading

Four Arkansas shell egg plants, Delight Certified Egg Farms, Inc., Hope; Arkansas Egg Company, Little Rock; and Valley Farm Products and Mama Brooks Egg Company, North Little Rock, are officially approved and receive the U.S. Department of Agriculture's egg grading service.

This service is strictly voluntary and plants receiving the service pay for it on a fee or contract basis. Only plants that have their eggs graded under the federal-state program can use the official U. S. grade mark. It is used on cartons, in connection with brand and firm names, under the supervision of a licensed grader.

City Under Curse to Move Site

VALDEZ, Alaska (AP)—The way oldtimers tell it, a gypsy woman put a curse on Valdez more than 50 years ago.

She spat on the ground, said some day the earth would shake, many houses would be washed to sea and the rest would be moved to nearby Hazelton. Grass would grow over Valdez.

The gypsy lived in Hazelton, a mining village founded in the 1890's. She placed the curse when it became a ghost town as Valdez thrived.

Valdez was hardest hit of any Alaska city in the great March 27 earthquake. Thirty-two persons were killed, 85 per cent of the town was destroyed and many buildings were swept into the sea.

Now the City Council plans to move Valdez to a new location four miles away—where Hazelton once stood.

Sirloin Could Be Best Buy This Week

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

A juicy sirloin or a family-sized roast beef may prove to be a bargain this week as well as a treat.

Protein foods, particularly red meat and eggs, continue to share the spotlight at many supermarket counters. Increasingly abundant supplies of fresh fruit and vegetables play a colorful supporting role.

One national supermarket chain is offering sirloin at 85 cents a pound at its New York City area outlets, down 10 cents a pound from last week. Oven-ready rib roast has been marked down to 63 cents a pound at the same markets, a 16-cent reduction from the week before.

Poultry buyers should find both turkeys and chicken plentiful this weekend.

As for weekend specials, a government survey of 30 stores indicated that thrifty shoppers can cut their food bill perhaps by 6 per cent by taking advantage of them.

If you're in the mood for a spring fruit salad, look for bananas and strawberries as possible good fruit buys.

At the producer counter, cabbage, carrots, celery, lettuce, onions, potatoes, radishes, squash and tomatoes appear plentiful almost everywhere.

THIS IS A SHOT OF SOME 400 HOPE HIGH School students who crowded into the Youth Center Thursday for the annual signing of the school yearbook. This picture shows about one fourth of the group, that covered the floor from wall to wall and filled up every available booth. Thursday night's group was the largest ever to attend this annual event.

Television and Radio

By CYNTHIA LOWRY

NEW YORK (TP) — The history of Charles de Gaulle since the fall of France at the outset of World War II, said CBS correspondent Charles Collingwood Wednesday night, is "all mixed up in the history of modern France."

Thus "CBS Reports" first of two hour-long programs dedicated to an examination of the life and character of the president of France spent almost as much time on the nation's recent history as it did on the man. There just was not much time left in which to dig very deep.

Too much ground had to be covered — a world war in which De Gaulle, now 73, led the Free French forces, his return to head the government, political bickering and early retirement only to return to government in another great emergency.

The hour had too much backgrounding and rehashing of well-known events for even the casual student of foreign affairs, and too skimpy a fill-in for those who had forgotten if they ever knew, of De Gaulle's long and stormy career as savior of France.

Still, it was a brave attempt to reduce to a few minutes subjects about which shelves of books have been and are being written. And it may help Americans to understand better what Collingwood described as "the aloof imperious, monarchical figure forever in a storm of controversy but whose passionate love of country has never been questioned."

Ed Sullivan isn't the only importer of offbeat English quartets. Red Skelton will have "The Snobs" on his Tuesday night CBS show — four 17-year-olds who stomp and harmonize attired in 17th century clothes, including powdered wigs.

Will Try to Save Sites of Archeology

LITTLE ROCK (AP) — The state Highway Commission agreed Wednesday to help the University of Arkansas save archeological sites from highway projects.

The commission authorized acting Highway Director Ward Goodman to spend $15,000 on the program, which is subject to approval of the Federal Bureau of Public Roads. The bureau would help finance the program.

Surveys will locate the sites for preservation and salvage from planned highway rights-of-way on the interstate system.

The commission also: —Agreed to pay up to $75,000 for an urban transportation and community development study in Fort Smith and Sebastian County.

—Authorized a free public ferry on the Ouachita River on Arkansas 15 at Moro Bay to provide service between Bradley and Union counties. The ferry would cost $79,000.

—Authorized negotiation of a contract with Army Engineers for the design of a bridge over Lock and Dam No. 3 on the Arkansas River in Jefferson and Lincoln counties. It would connect Arkansas 11 at the dam at a cost of about $125,000.

Woman Candidate for P.B. Mayor

PINE BLUFF, Ark. (AP) — Mrs. Warren Liebling filed Wednesday as a Republican candidate for mayor of Pine Bluff against incumbent Democrat Offie Lites.

Lites has served four months of a two-year term to which he was elected last year.

He and other city officials filed Wednesday because of a late discovery of a law which says cities of 50,000 or more population must run their officers for four-year terms.

Mrs. Liebling's husband headed the Draft Rockefeller for Governor Committee. Liebling ran unsuccessfully for Congress in 1962 as a Republican.

Jim Taylor and Luther Granderson, Republicans, filed as candidates for aldermen.

The Average Washroom at the Office Is Often a Citadel of Private Enterprise

By HAL BOYLE

NEW YORK (AP)—One who wants to study modern civilization must take a look at the office washroom.

While the public part of an office is dedicated to the corporate purpose, its washroom is often a citadel of private enterprise.

I speak now of the men's washroom.

Well, here are a few of the characters you may be familiar with in the ordinary office washroom:

Joe McSturdy—"It could be worse working somewhere else, but I've never been there."

Angus Anguish—"Good lord, I can dry my face with half a towel. Why do these newcomers to the outfit waste three? That's the reason we don't have more money for merit raises."

The Philosopher—"Here today here tomorrow — another day another half dollar," he numbles, and goes out to a 77-cent luncheon special.

Wants Pennies for White House Lights

WASHINGTON (AP) — The Republican Congressional Committee newsletter today urged Americans to send pennies to President Johnson to enable him to keep the White House lights on at night.

It only costs one penny to burn a 100-watt light bulb all night, the newsletter said as it labeled the President's lights-out program "a phony economy which we could well do without."

WHAT SHOULD MOTHER EXPECT IN BABY'S FIRST YEAR?

By Dr. JOYCE BROTHERS

Dear Dr. Brothers: I'm expecting my first baby next month, and I want to know so many things about my baby during his first year—about his mental development and what to expect in general.—Mrs. P. P.

Dear Mrs. P.: In our first year, we develop in more ways than at any other time in our lives. For the most part, a baby's physical and mental growth go hand in hand.

One of the first things a mother often wonders is how well a newborn baby can see at first. Actually, in the beginning, he sees only in the sense of distinguishing light from darkness.

But it isn't until the sixth or eighth week that he can focus well, and will turn his eyes in the direction of her voice. At this point, he does something you've probably been waiting for. He's likely to laugh or smile at you. Before that, he isn't quite coordinated enough.

Fears Noise, Falls
What about his hearing when he's first born? This, too, isn't too coordinated in the beginning, either. A sudden noise will frighten him, as a sense of falling will. A baby's major fear during his first year is this fear of being dropped.

By three months, you'll find his intelligence is developing rapidly, and he's beginning to think. About then, he'll readily recognize you, and act pleased when you come toward him. And if he's hungry, he'll often stop crying when he sees you are preparing to feed him.

At this point, he'll start to enjoy brightly colored objects, especially brightly hued baby toys. And by three months, you'll see another reaction beginning. He starts to become selective about people. He'll be soothed by some, and ruffled by others. Shortly, you can see by his expressions and gestures whether he likes somebody or not.

The sounds he makes in the first month or so will seem to you random and varying forms of cooing. But it's interesting that mothers can now find out exactly what emotion the baby is conveying by the use of tapes recorded at the University of Minnesota's Institute of Child Development.

Cries Tell Progress
It's done this way: the cries of very young babies from different causes have been recorded and then explained on tape by Dr. Samuel Karelitz of the University of Minnesota. They include vocal expression of all new-born and older babies who were quite normal, and of those who are unfortunately suffering from various problems, such as mongolism, thyroid deficiency, and brain damage.

While these present tapes translate a baby's cooing into adult language, psychological study is going forward at the University of Minnesota to correlate the baby's sounds and cooing with his behavioral development and his intelligence. So, we'll soon have a unique tool in child psychology which will help tell how your baby is developing well before he can talk fluently.

If your new-born is like most others, he'll develop at about this rate the first year. He may look cross-eyed at you at first, but this is simply incoordination of his eye muscles in his early weeks, and normally disappears.

In about a month, he'll look directly at you, and at two months will follow you with his eyes.

By about the third month, he will look directly at you, and at two months will follow you with his eyes.

By about the third month, he will manipulate a rattle, and by the sixth will pick up a toy at sight. At eight or ten, he'll be saying several intelligible syllables, and by his first birthday, he'll be saying words. He'll be waiting for: distinctly say the two words, "Mama" and "Dada."

The main thing to remember about your first-born is that he won't develop as rapidly as you might have expected him to, and in this he's being altogether normal. Although babies have an extraordinary capacity for learning, it takes time.

Loan for Prescott

WASHINGTON (AP) — Rep. Oren Harris, D-Ark., said Monday that the Area Redevelopment Administration has approved two loans totaling $2,919,000 to help finance construction of plant facilities for the Robins Flooring Co. at Prescott. Harris said Nevada County would receive $2,120,000 for construction of the plant and Prescott would get $799,000 for a water line to the plant.

CHICAGO (AP) — Stepin Fetchit, who won fame and earned several million dollars in the movies, is ill in Cook County Hospital — a welfare patient without a dime.

NEW YORK (AP)—Secretary of State Dean Rusk says the civil rights bill must be passed so the United States' voice will not be "muted by the hypocrisy of unreal pretensions."

In a speech to the American Jewish Committee in New York, the secretary said "I know of no single step which Congress can take to establish more securely the safety and welfare of our nation than to pass the civil rights bill now before it."

Woman Candidate for P.B. Mayor

PINE BLUFF, Ark. (AP) — Mrs. Warren Liebling filed Wednesday as a Republican candidate for mayor of Pine Bluff against incumbent Democrat Offie Lites.

Lites has served four months of a two-year term to which he was elected last year.

He and other city officials filed Wednesday because of a late discovery of a law which says cities of 50,000 or more population must run their officers for four-year terms.

Mrs. Liebling's husband headed the Draft Rockefeller for Governor Committee. Liebling ran unsuccessfully for Congress in 1962 as a Republican.

Jim Taylor and Luther Granderson, Republicans, filed as candidates for aldermen.

The Columbus Enquirer
COLUMBUS, Ga. (AP) — The U.S. Army has come up with a successful device destined to gladden the heart of every infantryman an instant foxhole. To dig a proper foxhole in the past, a soldier needed a pick, shovel, stamina and sometimes a prayer. And there were reports that some GI and Marines in a hurry dug sufficient holes with their bare hands.

A team from the U.S. Combat Development Command's infantry agency put the new development on display Wednesday at Ft. Benning.

The result may make it possible for a soldier to pick up a one-pound foxhole digger from the supply sergeant and take a rest while the things digs a hole for him.

What's more, says the Army, the hole can be dug in the hardest, rockiest ground. The foxhole digger comes in two parts—the first part for blasting a small hole two inches in diameter and several inches deep. This is known as a pilot hole.

The second part of the device is placed in the pilot hole, a primer is set, and the soldier gets out of the way for about 30 seconds while a cratering explosion digs the foxhole.

The instant foxhole was developed at the Engineer Research and Development Laboratory, Ft. Belvoir, Va.

The demonstration showed the device works best in hard, rocky, clay-type soil or frozen ground. This is because dirt blasted from soft, loam-type soil tends to cave in along the sides and the soldier has to pitch it out with a shovel.

Although the device still is in the experimental stage, it is expected to be tested in the field by troops beginning in October.

THE STORY: Tony Malcolm, indebted to Domingo, owes the latter a life and must kill someone. Tony tells this to Tani, who is an informer and works with Don Fernando, the chief of police of Cartama, Spain. He is now at her home.

XVII
"It was good coffee," Malcolm said.
"Do you want some more?" He shook his head slowly and picked up one of the brightly colored little animals which grazed on the slick surface of the coffee table.

"I like to play with them," Tani said, made uneasy and defensive by his frowning examination of the little plastic animal. She sat on the floor beside the table. "Look, I can frighten the sheep with the wolf, and then I send the big brave shepherd dog to protect them."

"It's a game with a happy ending," he said.
"Why are you doing what Domingo wants you to?" she asked him anxiously.
"Because I must," Malcolm said.

"That's foolish. Is it because of the night in his bar? When you tried to kill yourself for a drink?"
"That's part of it," she said, and for the first time she had no fear of him; there was anger and indignation in her voice. "Listen to me; it was a drunken thing you tried to do. You were sick, helpless. I lied to you. I wasn't kind to you when you came here that morning. I laughed at your sorrows, Jorge kicked you into the street."

He smiled at her. "Yes, I know that."
"But don't you see, you were drunk. You mustn't let Domingo make you kill someone."
"What I do for him, I will do out of gratitude," Malcolm said.

He laughed at her frown.
Tani put aside her fears with an effort of will; she ignored the premonitions of disaster that had made her heart flutter so nervously. She leaned closer to him, and her smile became eager and childishly pleasing. "Tell me all you know about Domingo. Who he wants you to kill. What he will gain from it."

"And who will you sell or trade this information to?"
Tani considered her reply carefully. Finally she decided

Workers Cleared of Helping Faubus
LITTLE ROCK (AP) — The state Highway Commission cleared its employees Wednesday of campaigning for Gov. Orval E. Faubus in state cars on state time.

Kohler O'Brien of Morrilton, secretary-treasurer of the Conway County Better Government League, said earlier this month that highway employees circulated petitions urging Faubus to seek a sixth term.

Faubus said previously that the charge was without foundation.
The great horned owl is one of the largest of owls, with a length of about 23 inches.

The instant foxhole varies from 20 to 36 inches deep and about two feet in diameter.

Second Porker Contest Slated for Saturday

FAYETTEVILLE, Ark. (AP)—The Arkansas football team, building from a mediocre season, makes its 1964 debut here Saturday in the first of the Red-White games.

Coach Frank Broyles has conducted closed practice this spring, as in the past.

The second Red-White game will be a week from Saturday in Little Rock.

The latest practice was the worst of the year, Broyles said. "They acted like they didn't want to practice," he said.

Defensive Coach Jim Mackenzie grouped the defensive teams together after practice and "pointed out some of the things you have to do to play defense."

"If it doesn't get better today, it's going to be a long fall," he warned. "Until the last two practices, we had a better hitting team than last fall. But today, it was terrible."

Trainer Bill Ferrell reported a modest list of injuries for the Red-White battle.

Broyles' spring technique this season has varied from in the past.

The seniors didn't get a spring payoff, like they were given in previous seasons.

Several position changes were made the first day, but since then they have been kept at a minimum.

The staff decided to build separate offensive and defensive teams, counting on a substitution rule that would make the system worthwhile.

The "I formation" was introduced.

In lieu of a tremendously talented offensive performer, they have worked toward building a balanced attack, hoping it would make up in dependability for what it may lack in spectacular.

Broyles says he will try to balance the squads evenly for the game.

Liston Soon to Get His Money

CHESTER, Pa. (AP)—Sonny Liston hasn't been paid for the fight in which he lost his heavy-weight boxing title to Cassius Clay, but he will receive his money soon.

That was the word Thursday from Jack Nilon, head of International Promotions, Inc., which promoted the February bout. Nilon issued a prepared statement, answering comments Liston had made in Denver.

Money from the fight, Nilon explained, has been tied up in attachments and tax liens.

Spahn Thinks Braves Are Good as Ever

By DAVE O'HARA
Associated Press Sports Writer

MILWAUKEE (AP)—When a master of his trade speaks, it's best to pay attention. So when southpaw Warren Spahn predicts the 1964 Milwaukee Braves are a pennant contender other clubs better take notice.

"You know, we have a pretty darn good ball club," the Braves' 43-year-old pitching ace said Thursday night before being honored as Wisconsin's Athlete of the Year in 1963.

"I honestly think we're as good as we were when we won our first pennant in Milwaukee in 1957," he continued. "We have the hitters to get us the runs we need. The punch is all down the line. So it should come right to our pitching. And I think we've got it."

Spahn, who has become the biggest left-handed winner in baseball history with 351 victories since 1946, was asked if it weren't expecting too much to think the Braves' young pitchers can carry such a big load.

"No, I don't think so," he replied emphatically. "Sure, I realize that none with the exception of myself and Billy Hoefl ever has won more than 11 games a season up here.

But that shouldn't be a factor. Our younger pitchers have proven themselves in games. Now they have the opportunity to prove themselves over a season."

Spahn, who posted a brilliant 23-7 record for his 13th 20-victory season last year, is looking ahead to another magic 20 this year.

"But I expect plenty of help [this year from the kids like] Denny Lemaster, Tony Cloninger, Hank Fischer and Bob Sadowski," he said. "Those kids can throw hard—and good. Lemaster is a fine pitcher. Cloninger may have found himself with the one-hitter the other night against Pittsburgh. Fischer has won both his starts for us. And Sadowski knows what pitching is all about."

Spahn goes tonight against the Philadelphia Phillies, who top the National League with nine victories in 11 starts. The Braves are in third place, two games off the pace, with an 8-5 record.

Spahn, who has a 1-1 record, is due to be opposed by the Phils' Jim Bunning, who is 2-0.

Hayward, Cokes Fight Tonight

Hayward, 23, has an 18-2-1 record and is rated 10th by the World Boxing Association. He has had eight knockouts.

Gamble Pays for Mgr. of Houston Team

By MIKE RATHET

Associated Press Sports Writer

You're Houston Manager Harry Craft. The score's tied 3-3 in the seventh and you've got a man on base, but three of your next four hitters are left-handers, scheduled to bat against a left-handed pitcher.

What do you do?

Simple: You bat for one of the lefty swingers—the one who's collected a homer and two singles in three at-bats.

What happens?

You get booted. And you beat the Los Angeles Dodgers 7-3.

That's the way Craft worked things out at Houston Thursday night when he made his strategic moves in the last of the seventh. Eddie Kasko opened the inning with a single and was sacrificed to second. With lefties due up, Dodger Manager Walt Alston switched to a southpaw pitcher, Jim Brewer.

Craft let lefty Al Spangler hit, and Brewer walked him. Up next was another lefty, Walt Bond, who hit a two-run homer in the first inning and added two singles for a perfect night.

And out he came.

Rookie Mike White was sent up to pinch hit as the crowd booed. They weren't booing when White drove a single past third base driving in Kasko.

Bob Aspromonte then was intentionally walked to load the bases, and left-swinger Rusty Staub was up. Craft let him hit, and he did—lacing a double down the right-field line that cleared the bases.

That ended the strategy battle, and the Dodgers' four-game winning streak.

Philadelphia made it three victories in a row by beating Cincinnati 3-1 in the only other National League game played.

In American League action, Cleveland belted Minnesota 8-4 and Kansas City walloped Detroit 10-3.

Three games were rained out—San Francisco at Chicago and St. Louis at Milwaukee in the NL and Chicago at New York in the AL.

The Dodgers scored in the first inning on a triple by Maury Wills and Willie Davis' sacrifice fly but the Colts moved ahead in the bottom of the inning on Bond's homer. Singles by Nellie Fox, Bond and Aspromonte made it 3-1 in the third.

The Dodgers tied it with single runs in the fourth and fifth against Dick Farrell, with John Werhas' sacrifice fly and Ron Fairly's single driving in the runs. Farrell stopped the Dodgers the rest of the way.

The Phillies jumped out to a 2-0 lead in the first inning and that was enough for Dennis Bennett, who scattered eight hits. Richie Allen doubled one run home and Joe Nuxhall forced in the other by hitting Tony Gonzalez with a pitch in a bases-loaded situation.

Twins' starter Dick Stigman had allowed only one hit through five innings when Leon Wagner and Vic Davalillo started slugging for the Indians. Wagner, who also collected a single and double, hit a three-run homer in a four-run sixth. Davalillo's double drove in two runs in a three-run seventh.

Conference Names a Commissioner

SAN JOSE, Calif. (AP)—Robert W. Burnett, former Stanford University basketball coach and Pacific Coast Intercollegiate Bureau official supervisor, has been named commissioner of the West Coast Athletic Conference.

Burnett succeeds Wilbur V. (Bill) Hubbard, who resigned last week as WCAC commissioner to become supervisor of football and basketball officials for the Athletic Association of Western Universities.

The fight inside the ring was just as good.

Ebihara, a 7-5 favorite, bled freely from the ninth round on when Torres opened a deep wound over his left eye.

Going into the final two rounds, the fight appeared to be dead even, but Ebihara, fighting at 112, withstood the 111½-pound Torres' determined charges and won both rounds.

Judge John Thomas scored the fight 6-4 in favor of Torres. But he was overruled by Judge Dick Young and referee Tommy Hart, who scored it for Ebihara 7-4 and 8-5 respectively.

Horse Owner Collects His Large Payoff

By LARRY FIEDMAN

WESTBURY, N.Y. (AP)—A New Jersey trotting horse owner has his name on a check for $132,232.80 today. It is from Roosevelt Raceway and represents the largest payoff for a $2 wager in American pari-mutuel history.

The lucky fellow is Michael Sherman, 51, of Freehold, N.J., father of three children.

Sherman, who is in the real estate business, cashed the winning ticket Thursday for the twin-double of the final four races at Roosevelt Tuesday night.

Sherman said he has six partners, but that he heads the combine. Four showed up to collect, ending the mystery of the winners' identities. An attorney and accountant also came along.

There's another "partner" to the big payoff—the Internal Revenue Service, which must approve the validity of the seven-man combine. Taxes would be considerably higher on a single individual.

Each of the seven sharing in the pot gets more than $18,890, before taxes, if they split it up equally.

The winners obviously know their way around horses—and pari-mutuel machines. Two had won twin doubles previously, one for $7,000 and one for $320.

The other three who joined Sherman in the winner's circle were William J. Bresnahan Jr., 31, a dairy distributor and father of eight who actually bought the lucky ticket; John E. Saker, 30, and his brother, Joseph J. Saker, 35, each of whom has five children. The Sakers are partners in a supermarket chain.

The Sakers and Bresnahan are stockholders in Fair Acres Farms in Freehold, which owns about 14 horses.

The accountant, Morris Landis, identified two other partners as John Saker Sr. and William L. Bresnahan Sr., fathers of the winners. The seventh partner's name was not disclosed.

The previous twin-double record payoff was the $84,692.20 at Gulfstream Park in Florida on April 22.

The accountant said all the winners were well off even before their record windfall. Mrs. Bresnahan said the money will go to good use in educating her eight children, aged 2 to 12.

The winners said they sought an unpublicized payoff, but it was far from that.

When the men drove up they were met by more than 50 newsmen and photographers, along with television lights.
